

Fragment of an ancient papyrus scroll with faint, illegible hieroglyphic or cursive script. The fragment is dark brown and shows signs of wear, including small holes and a central fold.

Fragment of an ancient papyrus scroll with several lines of handwritten text in a cursive script, likely from the Greco-Roman period. The text is written in dark ink on a heavily aged, brown, and cracked surface. The script is dense and difficult to decipher due to the wear and tear of the material. The fragment is long and narrow, with irregular edges and several small holes or indentations along its length.
