A household of brothers and sisters. The Smith brothers and sisters living in this household are children of James Smith junior, son of James Smith Senior. James Smith Jr. died about 10 years ago. His two older brothers Allan and Panton Smith are alive.

"Smith Eloise and Lindon Smith and Lilian and Janet - they are brother and sister. They are children of young James Smith, the third brother, but he died. Not so long. Around 10 years!"

1. "Lyndon Smith - work his father's land in the wood and the homeland too. And he still work along with Menochel Powell on share."
2. "Eloise Smith - she is along with Samuel Powell son 'Tassin' Have about three children - all for Tassin. Children are staying with the mother. Tassin helping her."
3. "Lenword Smith - he work on John Roye place in Top Bull Savannah - on share with John Roye. And work homeland."
4. "Lilian - Major Moxsy took away, she and the other ~~mayxx~~ brother. She is working with major Moxsy. She is a maid for Major Moxsy!"
5. "Janet - she is a young girl at home. Small child."
6. "Next boy - he was the first boy. Major Moxsy took him with him along. He work with Maj. Moxsy working on Maj. Moxsy property - we call it 'busher' (the type of occupation). That boy we call him "Family Man" the oldest, father died and he was the oldest. He had to take all the responsibility."

Heads of family.

Since the eldest brother "Family Man" left the home and district, the eldest sister Eloise and the eldest brother Lyndon are the heads of this household.

The land.

"The homeland - not much. But they have a little land in the wood."

The two brothers who are at home work besides their own land on shares with other people. Eloise is getting some support from her children's father.
